

ONE INDUSTRY. ONE VOICE.

NLBMDA provides its members the resources and education to comply with federal laws, codes, and regulations. NLBMDA identifies challenges and growth opportunities to the industry and collaborates with its Federated Association Partners to develop solutions that require national implementation.

FEDERATED ASSOCIATION PARTNERS

- |                                         |                                                                |
|-----------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------|
| At Large Dealers                        | Mountain States Lumber & Building Material Dealers Association |
| BLD Connection                          | Midwest Building Suppliers Association                         |
| Building Material Suppliers Association | Western Building Material Association                          |
| Kentucky Building Materials Association | West Coast LBMA                                                |
| Lumbermen's Association of Texas        |                                                                |

MEMBER BENEFITS

UP-TO-DATE COMMUNICATION

Stay informed about federal legislative and regulatory issues that affect your business.

ENGAGEMENT OPPORTUNITIES

Make connections and network at our premier events, the Spring Meeting & Legislative Conference and the ProDealer Industry Summit.

EXCLUSIVE DISCOUNTS

Access training resources, industry insights, and market research at the lowest prices.

INDUSTRY EDUCATION

Attend webinars dedicated to education on various OSHA regulations, training requirements, and other federal regulations.

MANUFACTURERS AND SERVICES COUNCIL (MSC)

MSC members are supporters of the pro dealers in our industry. Membership provides them with the chance to connect with their prospective customers and other industry executives. This also gives MSC members the opportunity to understand what legislative and regulatory issues pro dealers are facing, providing a more nuanced understanding of their consumer base.